

Remembering Red, A Tribute to Red Skelton

Thurs., Mar 24, 2024 1PM

On a snowy, rainy day, 16 people gathered in their vehicles to pay tribute to a one-of-a-kind comedian from our youth, Red Skelton, at the Palace theater in Wisconsin Dells. Some were new members, some were old members, and we had a few guests as well. Nancy Boll and Joanne Tuckwood joined us, as well as Laura's twin sister and her husband Bob.

We were seated on the floor close to the stage. After a dinner of roasted chicken, mashed potatoes, vegetable medley, and coffee and raspberry souffle dessert, Brian Hoffman, the only entertainer certified by the Red Skelton family, entertained us for the next 2 hours.

He had everyone laughing during this time with his play-on-word, one-liners. It took some members in the audience time to catch on to some of them. Brian also gave us a little information about Red Skelton's background and life as a comedian. After the show, Brian then personally greeted the audience and did photo-ops

Several of us hung around for about an hour chatting and catching up with each other's lives. I think everyone enjoyed the show and getting back together.
